Good afternoon Marco and Bill,

Yasir and I just received this message from Jim Watson.

PM's message about us not using all our tools is not helpful; and I was promised 250 net new officers and we are not getting that; as they are counting the first instalment of 100 as part of the 250. This needs to be fixed. Members of council now have the votes to ask for the army To intervene. Please get back to me before Monday on a solution to have more officers here by mid next week at the latest. I'm
